ANTI-TRUST LAWS WILL BE INVOKED IN OYSTER CASE

Injunction Proceedings of Sealship Company Against C. Scott & Company Promise Live-Ly Legal Battle---Injunction Hearing April 3.

The developments in the injunction proceedings instituted by the Sealship Oyster System against C. Scott and W. H. McLean, trading as C. Scott & Co., have taken an interesting turn and the fight promises to be one of considerable interest not only in Greensboro, but throughout the entire State and the result will be awaited by a large number of merchants who are using the patented cases of the Oyster Company. The hearing as regards the permanent injunction will be before Judge F. A. Daniels in Greensboro on April 3. Stern & Stern represent the Oyster Company and Justice and Broadhurst represent the defendant.

The Sealship Oyster System Company has a patent on a certain case or container for keeping oysters and it leases these cases to merchants for keeping their oysters, there being a proviso in the contract entered into that no oysters can be kept in said cases except those handled through the company leasing the cases. The company also fixes the prices at which merchants shall retail the oysters and in case this price is not maintained the lease on the case is forfeited and the case again becomes the property of the company that holds the patent.

On Wednesday the Sealship Company instituted claim and delivery proceedings to secure possession of the case held by C. Scott & Co., which had been packed away as soon as the temporary restraining order had been issued by Judge Daniels against the use of the case by the defendant. The defendant promptly gave bond and retained possession of the case, pending the hearing on the claim and delivery proceedings on April 4 before Justice of the Peace D. H. Collins.

The defendant, through counsel, contends that the contract made by the Sealship Oyster System Company is in violation of the Federal and State anti-trust laws and therefore is void, holding that because of this fact the case reverts to the merchants. The defendant also contends that the requirements of the company that only oysters handled by the company and sold at prices fixed by the company be handled by the grocers are in restraint of trade and are in violation of the anti-trust laws; that the case was purchased by the defendant from the company, to be used according to certain requirements and inasmuch as the requirements are in violation of certain laws the plaintiff has no claim whatever in said case.

ADVANCES OF A NEGRO REPULSED BY BRAVE WOMAN

Mrs. W. W. Leigh Used Stovewood on Head of John Wylie When he Attempted Assault---Wylie in Jail.

But for the fact that Mrs. W. W. Leigh retained her presence of mind when a black negro seized her and by the use of her strong right arm and a stick of stove wood drove him pell mell from her home there would have been no doubt been great excitement in Greensboro last night, with good prospects for a lynching bee.

Negro In Calaboose.

The negro was arrested about 2 o'clock this morning by Sergeant Pearce and Officers Jeffreys, Causey and Foushee. He was placed in the calaboose to await a hearing before Judge Eure this morning. It is quite likely that he will be charged only with an assault as there is no evidence to show that he intended criminal assault.

Wanted Something To Eat.

The negro, John Wylie, who drives a delivery wagon for Hepler Bros., grocers, had gone to the Leigh home, 750 West Lee street, to deliver groceries. He had deposited them in the kitchen, according to Mrs. Leigh's statement to the police, after which he asked for something to eat. Mrs. Leigh had given him some food and he had presumably started out and Mrs. Leigh resumed cooking supper.

Plucky Defense.

A minute later she felt something catch hold of her and thinking it was her child turned partly around only to look into the face of the negro. She gave him a blow with her fist and, being stouter than the average woman, sent him reeling. She grabbed a stick of stove wood that lay convenient and pummeled him severely over the head, driving him from the room. He poked his head inside and she then ran him outside, locking the front door. The negro tried to again enter the house and Mrs. Leigh ran for a revolver in a bedroom. The negro then ran to the wagon and drove rapidly away. She stated that she was not frightened but thoroughly angry and had she gotten the pistol while the negro was in the house would have killed him.

Did Not Consider Matter Seriously.

Mrs. Leigh did not consider the matter to be of a serious nature and did not at once notify the police. The news was communicated to The Telegram shortly afterwards and Chief Neelley, who lives nearby, was communicated with just as he reached home. Chief Neelley at once ascertained the facts from Mrs. Leigh and the officers were at once put on the trail.

Said He Expected Trouble.

Wylie after returning to the store put up his horse and stated to some one in the store that he had split some wood for Mrs. Leigh and while gathering it into the house had slipped and caught her to keep from falling, saying that he had apologized to her after she had struck him over the head with a piece of wood. He met Officer Hepler as he went home and repeated his story, adding that he expected trouble. At that time the officer knew nothing of the real facts and Wylie was allowed to go unmolested.

Not at Home Last Night.

As soon as the officers learned the facts they at once proceeded to Wylie's home on South Ashe street only to find him gone. They searched that section of the city, but without avail. Wylie's story to the officers when arrested was about the same as is given above. He was asked where he had been all night and replied that he was "up street." He said he intended coming up to court this morning.

Wylie Was Drinking.

The negro was drinking early last night when seen by Officer Hepler. Heretofore he has been considered a steady negro and his employers did not think that he would act in an impolite way to any person. They are of the opinion that he was partially crazed by drink at the time he attempted to assault Mrs. Leigh. He has a wife and two children.

TWO TRACK MEETS ARE ARRANGED FOR

Manager E. Ray Bond, of the Greensboro High School track team, has already two meets definitely arranged. The first is at Guilford College on April 1 when the sprinters will contest against several high schools of the adjoining counties. At Raleigh on April 8 the team will meet representatives from Kinston, Wilmington, and Raleigh High schools in probably the biggest inter-high school contest of this kind ever held in the state. The Athletic Association of Greensboro High School has for several years been attempting to inaugurate track athletics among the various high schools of the state and last spring defeated track teams from Raleigh and Winston High schools, doubling the score of the nearest competitor.

For the past month aspiring candidates have been practicing in the auditorium and as a result a strong team is being developed. In preparation for the larger and harder contests the three upper classes of the high school, Senior, Intermediate and Junior, will hold an inter-class meet in the auditorium this afternoon, beginning at 3:30 o'clock. Eleven events will be contested, and, encouraged by the enthusiastic support of their classmates, and strengthened by hard practice, the rivals each expect to win the laurels of victory. The events and contestants are as follows:

1. 100 yard dash--Yates, senior; Hendrix, intermediate; Marrs, Patterson, senior.
2. 220 yard dash--McDuffie, senior; Blair, Hendrix, intermediate; Wolfe, (Capt.) Junior.
3. 440 yard dash--McDuffie, senior; Lewis, intermediate; Wolfe, junior.
4. One half mile run--Coffin (Capt.) Eutslers, senior; Murray, intermediate; Clement, junior.
5. One mile run--Coffin, Eutslers, senior; Murray, intermediate; Clement, junior.
6. 100 yard low hurdles--Bond, senior; Grimsley, (Capt.) intermediate; Patterson, junior.
7. Shot put--Foust, Coffin, senior; Grimsley, intermediate; Dixon, Marrs, Fisher, junior.
8. Pole vault--Coffin, senior; Grimsley, intermediate; Coffin, junior.
9. High jump--Yates, Bond, senior; Hendrix, Grimsley, intermediate; Marrs, Foushee, Bain, junior.
11. Accurate baseball throw--Foust, Coffin, senior; Lewis, intermediate; Fisher, junior.

County Chairman Will Quit Office

A meeting of the Guilford County Democratic Executive Committee has been called by Chairman E. G. Sherrill for Saturday at noon. At this meeting Mr. Sherrill will tender his resignation as chairman of the committee, his work being such that he cannot give to the position the time and attention that it should receive.

RALEIGH Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN OPENED WITH ENTHUSIASM

Movement Formally Launched Thursday Night--Prominent Speakers Addressed Large Audience---Great Enthusiasm---$5,000 Contributed.

Raleigh, March 23.--The campaign for the organization of a Young Men's Christian Association and the erection of a $65,000 home for the organization was launched tonight at a conference dinner at which stirring addresses were delivered by United States Judge J. C. Pritchard of Asheville, R. C. Hood of Greensboro and S. A. Askley, a Y. M. C. A. leader of Richmond. One hundred and fifty men participated in the meeting, which was enthusiastic from the start and reached a high pitch when it was announced that four citizens would contribute $5,000 of the sum it is expected to raise.

The whirlwind campaign for the Y. M. C. A. is planned to last until April 1, and it is believed the entire amount of money desired will be secured before that date. The meeting tonight was one of the most impressive gatherings ever assembled in this city, and the addresses delivered by the distinguished visitors were of the most stimulating and encouraging nature and fired the audience with enthusiasm for the campaign.

Diaz Must Resign to Secure Peace Says Hopkins

New Orleans, March 23.--"President Diaz must step down before peace can come to Mexico."

This is the declaration of Captain Shribourne J. Hopkins, of Washington, attorney for the Madero insurgents, who sailed from New Orleans yesterday for Guatemala City for a consultation with President Cabrera on matters concerning that government.

Capt. Hopkins emphatically denied the report, which he said emanated from Mexican official circles in Washington, that the Standard Oil Company was financing the Mexican revolution.

"The Madero family alone is furnishing the money for the revolution," he said. "Hundreds of thousands have been expended by Gustavo Madero and his brother Francisco I. Madero already, and they stand ready to impoverish themselves to bring about the fall of the Diaz ring in Mexico. They were wise enough to transfer their immense fortune to foreign corporations before they embarked in the revolution. Thus they are protected from confiscation of their money and estates.

"Counting all his force, Diaz has not 16,000 men that he can depend upon. The army is honeycombed with sedition and there is no such thing as a volunteer force upon which he can call. He does not dare place arms into the hands of the common people because he knows how hostile they are to him and his ministry. They do not like Limantour any more than Diaz and it will be impossible for the minister of finance to try to bring about peace."

Albermarle Man Killed by Explosion

Albermarle, March 23.--An accident which cost the life of Bud Lowder of this place, occurred late yesterday afternoon, at his saw mill five miles south of here. While at work the boiler exploded, and Mr. Lowder, who was standing near was blown 50 or 60 feet away, with one arm almost blown off, and an ugly gash cut in his head and badly scalded. He was carried to a neighbor's house near, where he died last night. Several others were standing near when the explosion occurred, but none other than Mr. Lowder was seriously hurt.

Mr. Lowder was about 50 years old, in good circumstances, with a wife and several children.

MRS. HARRISON DIED THURSDAY MORNING

Wife of Dr. Edmund Harrison Passed Away at Home on North Cedar Street.

Following an illness of several months Mrs. Edmund Harrison died yesterday morning at 10:15 o'clock, at the family residence, 230 North Cedar street. Mrs. Harrison was 31 years of age and is survived by her husband, Dr. Edmund Harrison, two children, her mother, Mrs. Paul J. Carraway, and a sister, Mrs. John S. Michaux.

Mrs. Harrison's condition had been critical for some days and the end came not unexpectedly. All that medical skill and tender care could do was done in an effort to restore health, but it was seen Wednesday that the end was near.

The funeral will be held from West Market Street Methodist church, of which the deceased was a faithful and devoted member, this afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. K. McLarty, assisted by Rev. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist church. The interment will follow in Green Hill cemetery, the following to act as pall bearers: C. G. Harrison, J. J. Stone, Howard Gardner, Fred C. Odell, A. J. Klutz, F. P. Hobbgood. The flower bearers will be Mesdames C. G. Harrison, Fred C. Odell, B. G. Gilmer, Robt. Irvin, Eugene Sykes, Miss McCulloch.

Mrs. Harrison was a daughter of the late Rev. Paul J. Carraway and came to Greensboro fifteen years ago. She was a most lovable young woman and by her gentle disposition and beautiful Christian character won the love and esteem of a large circle of friends who mourn her loss. She was married to Dr. Harrison about 8 years ago and of this union two children, one five and another two years of age, survive.

Rev. and Mrs. Edmund Harrison, Dr. Harrison's parents, were called here from Richmond Wednesday on account of Mrs. Harrison's critical condition. Mrs. Hoge and Mrs. Rucker, of Richmond; Mrs. J. W. Downer and Mrs. T. S. Knight, of Hopkinsville, Ky., sisters of Dr. Harrison, and a brother, John S. Harrison, of Richmond, are here to attend the funeral.

Mayor J. S. Wynne, of Raleigh, was in the city yesterday.

Statements Must be Filed by Candidates For Commissioner

E. A. Brown, candidate for Commissioner of Public Safety, is the first candidate to file with the city clerk a statement of his candidacy. The new charter provides that this statement must be filed by each candidate at least ten days prior to the primary. Therefore, April 14th will be the last day for filing this paper. A fee of $5 must be paid over to the clerk when this paper is filed, and the money will be turned into the general fund of the city.

The statement which candidates are required to file is as follows:

I, _____, being first duly sworn, say that I reside at _____, St., City of Greensboro, County of Guilford, State of North Carolina; that I am a candidate for nomination to the office of Commissioner of _____ to be voted upon at the Primary Election to be held on the fourth Monday of April, 1911, and I hereby request that my name be printed upon the official ballot for nomination by such Primary Election for such office.

Registration books for the primary will be opened March 27 and will be held open until April 22, which is just two days before the primary. For voting purposes in this election the city is divided into two sections. All voters residing east of Elm street will register and vote at the hall of the Eagle Hose Company on Davis street. Citizens living west of Elm street will register and vote at the city hall.

An entirely new registration is necessary for the commission election, making it necessary for all who expect to vote in the primary to register again, regardless of previous registrations.

Cook Used Rolling Pin as Weapon

Justice of the Peace Collins yesterday afternoon convened court to try the case of State vs. Will Stanley, colored, the defendant being charged with assault and with carrying concealed weapons. Stanley, who is employed as a cook at the McAdoo hotel, used a rolling pin on Robert Wells, a fellow employee, and also made at him with a butcher knife.

In the carrying concealed weapon case Justice Collins bound Stanley over to Judge Eure's court and he will be given a hearing this morning. In the assault case Stanley was found guilty, judgment being continued until Judge Eure passes on the other case this morning.

Now that President Taft and numerous other citizens have explained just why the troops were sent to the Mexican border, the public is as wise as it was before.

New York is to have a campaign against bad novels. Bad novel reading is only one phase of the badness of New Yorkers. If all the bad things were removed from the metropolis but little would remain.

Shooting up the Texas was undoubtedly great sport for the men of the battleship New Hampshire, but when the taxpayers reflect upon the fact that the Texas cost them $3,000,000, their enjoyment of the sport will be spoiled.

The rivalry between Spartanburg and Greenville, a couple of towns down in South Carolina, reminds one of the way a number of towns in this State feel about Greensboro. However, Greensboro is too busy doing things to spend time envying other places—even if there was any reason for it.

"The disorder in Democratic ranks" in North Carolina, of which we are hearing much from Republican sources, is evidently worrying the Republicans more than it is bothering the Democrats. The truth is, no doubt, that it is the absence of Democratic factional differences that is worrying the Republicans.

THE AGED PRESIDENT OF MEXICO.

President Diaz of Mexico is more than eighty years of age. His great age is forcibly illustrated by the fact that, as a boy of about sixteen years, he enlisted in the army and fought against the United States in the Mexican War. Diaz was born of humble parentage in Oaxaca in 1830, his mother being an Indian. For more than half a century he has been in the forefront of all the stirring events which have transpired in his country, and the story of his life is practically the repetition of the history of Mexico since 1876, when he was made provisional president of the country.

Some of the principal events in the life of Diaz, after his service in the Mexican War, are briefly outlined as follows:

1859—General of brigade. Opposed French in war of intervention.

1867—Secured surrender of City of Mexico from Maximilian.

1867—Candidate for presidency against Juarez. Defeated.

1876—In November, made provisional to victory.

1876—In November, made provision president.

1877—April, regularly elected for a three years' term.

1880—Secured election of Gonzales as his successor.

1880-84—Successively member of cabinet, senator and governor of Oaxaca.

1884—Again elected president, law against reelection having been abrogated.

1888, 1892, 1896, 1900, 1904 and 1908—Reelected president.

1884-1909—Opened to public Tehuantepec railway route to the far east, produced a national surplus of $20,000,000, encouraged home industries, placed coinage on a gold basis, twice visited the United States, built railroads, telegraphs, and opened roads, developed agricultural and mining resources, established an efficient public school system, abolished the religious congregations and by cultivating the good will of foreign nations, gave Mexico a new status among the world powers.

1910—Saw the stirring up of much opposition to the reelection of Diaz. He was reelected, however, and shortly afterward the uprising, which is still unchecked, broke out. The early months of 1911 saw the chances for quelling the revolt less than when it first started. Those who predicted Diaz would soon crush it found he had lost his grip in the midst of the plots and counterplots against him.

WHAT NORTH CAROLINA EDITORS ARE SAYING.

The Boy Scouts Movement is taking hold in the city of Greensboro. Rev. D. M. Litaker, of Centenary church, is taking more interest in the movement perhaps than any other pastor in the city. We know little of this movement, but it seems to be an attempt to harness up the boys and encourage them to develop along natural lines, under the general direction of the religious impulse. Properly directed it would seem to promise fine results. Otherwise it would seem a thing easy of perversion.—North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Y. M. C. A. BANQUET TONIGHT.

There will be inaugurated in Raleigh tonight a movement that means more for the city than any movement of this decade except the building of the magnificent municipal building and auditorium. Raleigh is going forward in all ways that spell Progress. It has splendid social clubs, fine churches, beautiful parks, excellent libraries, the best schools and colleges, modern business, manufacturing and residence buildings, and commodious new hotels. One thing—one conspicuous thing—that Raleigh imperatively needs is a Y. M. C. A. building and the blessing to the young men of the city that flows from a Y. M. C. A. That need has long been felt, and a score and more of the best men in the city have been planning for several weeks to put Raleigh in line with Charleston, Greensboro, Durham, Asheville, Winston-Salem, Wilmington and all other like towns and cities of the country.

The campaign will be inaugurated with a splendid banquet in Metropolitan Hall tonight. It is hoped that every citizen in Raleigh who has the good of the city at heart will accept the invitation to be present at the banquet to give welcome to the eloquent and distinguished speakers who are to make addresses.

Raleigh is ready. It will take its place with Charleston and Greensboro, and will no longer let it be said that the capital of North Carolina is the only capital of any State in the Republic that has no Young Men's Christian Association.

Raleigh gives glad welcome today to Hon. Jeter C. Pritchard, of the Federal Circuit Court; Mr. S. A. Ackley, State secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Virginia, and Mr. R. C. Hood, who took an active part in raising $67,000 for a Y. M. C. A. at Greensboro, who have accepted invitations to speak at the banquet in Metropolitan Hall and fire the opening guns for the Y. M. C. A. building in Raleigh tonight. It is good to see a judicial officer of a high court deeply enough interested in the welfare of the youth of the State and its capital city to take the time to come and lend a hand in this great work. Too many public men fail to throw the weight of their influence for the upbuilding of their fellows. It is good to see a progressive and successful business man like Mr. Hood as interested in Y. M. C. A. work as in his business. It is pleasant to see associate officers of a sister State ready to cross the border and give our capital city a helping hand.

Raleigh gives warm welcome and grateful appreciation to these public-spirited gentlemen who have enlisted in the noblest cause that appeals to humanity.—Thursday's News and Observer.

Supreme Court Upheld Law Protecting Farmers

Raleigh, March 23.—The Supreme Court yesterday decided a case upholding the law which protects the farmer in buying cotton seed meal. The case arose in Pitt county and was appealed to the Supreme Court from the Superior Court of Pitt county.

The law requires that all cotton seed meal, whether to be used as fertilizer or as feed, shall be inspected and the bag or sack shall have plainly branded on it or on a tag attached to it, the following data: 1. Cotton seed meal with brand; 2. Weight of package; 3. Ammonia or nitrogen; and 4th, name and address of manufacturer. If the cotton seed meal is sold to a manufacturer for use in making fertilizers, it is not necessary to brand it or attach a tag.

In this case, State vs. Cotton Oil Co., the Southern Oil Company was indicted for selling cotton seed meal to a

OIL AND GAS PROSPECTORS STILL TALKING DOWN

AT SOUTHERN PINES.

Southern Pines, March, 23.—The proposition of W. H. Frost, the Pennsylvania oil producer, to look into the possibilities of oil or natural gas in North Carolina, has aroused sufficient interest to show that the prospects are reasonably good. Robert L. Steele, president of the Steele cotton mills at Rockingham, writes Mr. Frost that not far north of Rockingham oil was taken from a spring and later oil was taken from an excavation made for a foundation. A. M. Clark of Southern Pines mentions a place in the upper part of Moore county where natural gas has been found to issue from the ground in quantity sufficient to light.

This is taken by the oil men to indicate that the possible oil field, if any is found, will lie to the south of these points where oil and gas is thought to have been found, the finds indicating what the oil men call an edge well, or one on the edge of the territory that is productive. This theory is borne out by some researches of Dr. William B. Phillips, an old North Carolinian, who, while director of the Texas geological survey, made an extensive examination of the Texas oil and gas fields. Dr. Phillips says that the famous Beaumont wells are found in the tertiary sands, and as the Lucas well, the biggest well ever discovered in America, is one of the Beaumont wells, the tertiary sands are regarded as among the best oil sands known. The Russian oil fields are also in the tertiary sands, and there was found the largest well ever opened anywhere on earth, the Asadulief well, which flowed 160,000 barrels of oil a day when first drilled in.

The tertiary formation of North Carolina reaches from the coast back to include much of Richmond and Moore counties, the line being irregular, with occasional bits of the cretaceous interspersed. In the cretaceous are found the oil wells of Corsicana and some other small pools of Texas, this giving to this section the favorable horizons from which the biggest production of the world is obtained.

The Pennsylvania oil production is from the Devonian formation and the Ohio yields come largely from the deeper Trenton line of the Silurian, but the oil men say they do not look for anything from those formations here, as those rocks are either raised and eroded or buried beyond discovery so far.

The impression among two or three Pennsylvania oil men, who have been discussing Mr. Frost's scheme, is that the oil sands increase in thickness as the coast is approached, and that it would be wise, if an attempt is made to find oil or gas, to go to the southeast of the Seaboard Air-Line, as a certain amount of cover is necessary over an oil-bearing sand to confine it. In the region of the thinner cover the farmer without having the tags with this data attached. Chief Justice Clark writes the opinion for the Court and he states, "Rev. 394513978 contains a careful and comprehensive scheme to protect the public from the sale of worthless fertilizers and injurious food. The most efficient method of insuring this protection is the requirement therein that the contents of each package must be shown by a label or tag. The requirement of a small tax and the certificate that it has been paid is simply incidental and to provide a means for executing the law by proper inspection, etc."

"Rev. 3956 makes a violation of these sections subject to a penalty of $10 for each separate bag, barrel or package sold, or offered for sale, or removed, to be recovered by any person who may sue for the same." The evidence was full and complete that the bags of cotton seed meal had been sold without these tags with the required data being attached. The oil company introduced into evidence a letter from the Agricultural Department, that it would not be necessary to stamp the name of the manufacturer on the tax tags of 1909. The Court states that even if this was any excuse for the cotton oil company to violate the plain letter of the law as to stamping the name of the manufacturer on the tags, it did not relieve them from having a tag attached stating the weight and contents of the package as required by law. And the Court further states that the fact that the purchaser bought the cotton seed meal by exchanging a ton of seed for it, does not prevent it from being a sale.

The defendant also raised the question that the statute was unconstitutional because it permits anyone to sue and recover a penalty when the law is violated in addition to making it a misdemeanor. The Supreme Court says, "The Constitutional authority of the General Assembly to aid in the enforcement of the law by authorizing 'popular actions,' or quitclaim actions as they are sometimes called, in which the penalty to be recovered is given in whole or in part to anyone 'who shall sue for the same' was fully discussed and sustained in Sutton vs. Phillips, 116 oil has usually worked its way to the surface and escaped.

Recently John H. Winder, formerly of the Seaboard Air Line, drilled a well above Sanford, but, as he made his location outside of the deeper tertiary formation, the oil men say it is doubtful if the experiment proved a success. Mr. Winder has not announced what he found in the hole, as far as the oil men have been able to learn.

A couple of years ago some Pittsburgh oil men, who were putting in the winter at Southern Pines, talked more or less about the likelihood of oil or gas in this section, but nobody gave the subject much attention. Now that it is up again, and some inquiry has been made into the possibilities, those best able to judge express considerable faith in the chance of finding something worth while.

Before he left here Mr. Frost remarked that, while the drill is the only thing that will tell what is under foot, the surface indications looked good enough to him to think that a hole should be put down.

David Keys of Pittsburgh, an oil man who has followed the Pennsylvania field from the days of 1859, when Col. Drake put down his first well on Oil creek, says he thinks this formation ought to encourage the people of the sandhill country to find out what they have under them.

Another curious theory the oil men advance is that this section of country has a surface rock of small conglomerate sandstone, which carries a large percentage of iron, as it is of small size and apparently a rock that has come through much heat. As the oil story goes, out in Ohio in the productive Scioto oil field similar rocks were found on the surface, warped and marked by heat in the same manner. The rocks around Scioto attracted the attention of an old man named Snyder, who figured out that the heat had come from fires burning over the surface of ground saturated with oil from the sands below, or from gas arising from those lower sands and feeding a rather continuous fire. Acting on his hypothesis, Snyder drilled an oil well and brought in the Scioto pool, one of the richest in the State of Ohio.

The application is that possibly the misshaped rocks of the sandhills have been broken and distorted by heat from gas escaping from the lower porous sands of the sandhill tertiary, and the deduction is that below the more compact rocks oil and gas is still confined and awaiting the drill, which shall open a productive pool.

These various arguments are offered by different persons, many oil men dropping in here during the season, and the theories lend hope to a possible new source of riches for the coast counties. It looks as though tests would be made for oil and gas before a great while.

N. C., 502." The judgement of the lower court imposing a fine of $50 on the Cotton Oil Company for selling cotton seed meal without having tags attached showing its weight, etc., is affirmed.

Attacks School Principal.

A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c. at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

Madero? Madero? Isn't he the fellow that makes cigars? Oh, no, that's Maduro.—Boston Globe.

It Was Big Business.

In a semi-official statement issued last evening from the White House the President explains the great display of force on the Mexican border in a manner which places most of the responsibility upon Big Business. The army and navy were ordered to the Mexican boundary because Big Business had become alarmed, and rumors exceedingly grave in character left no alternative.

In defense of the movement Mr. Taft wishes it to be understood that Mexico could offer no objection, for it was wholly within our own territory, and that it has been effective, for Big Business now admits that conditions have greatly improved.

On the subject of war the President gravely denies that he is a jingo, asserts that he never entertained the idea of crossing the international line without the assent of Congress, which alone can make war, and that unless Congress acts in the premises the troops will be returned to their posts in about four months. Incidentally they will have had the benefit of the maneuvers of which so much has been written.

It is also said that he would like to have this demonstration classed with the world-cruise of the battleships, and he reminds the people that while that was said to be in glorification of war it actually promoted peace.

The people will be glad to have any sort of explanation of the extraordinary proceedings of the past fortnight, even a lame or a contradictory one. It is possible that if last night's statement had been made in the first place it would have been readily accepted. Coming tardily and in response to country-wide protests and criticisms, we do not believe that it will help matters much.

If Big Business were in such desperate straits two weeks ago as to demand the assistance of the army and navy and the Mexican Government did not object to the interest that we displayed, how did it happen that the navy was turned back? If our Government was at all times so intent upon peace and so mindful of Congressional authority, how did it happen that Mr. Taft found it was necessary on his return to Washington to issue orders restraining the commanders in Texas? If we proceeded to Mexico merely to stop the filibusters, why was it necessary to send 20,000 men and cannons and pontoons and trainloads of ammunition?

Appearances indicate that whether the President is afflicted with jingoism or not, the jingoes got the start of him in this case. Whatever the origin of the great war spectacle may have been, Mr. Taft acts wisely now in disavowing hostile purposes and in drawing a tight rein upon his too enthusiastic military advisers and commanders. Many a real war has resulted from exactly such follies as that in which they have engaged.—New York World.

Warning to Railroad Men

Look out for severe and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroading. Geo. E. Bell, 639 Third St., Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroading left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." Howard Gardner.

Communications

Many Incidents Prove the Boy Scouts Are Not Military.

Many things have occurred in the last week to disprove the charge of Socialists, Labor Leaders and others that the Boy Scouts of America is a military organization, designed to train boys for war. William Verbeck, Adjutant General of New York State, and a member of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, ably refuted the charge about militarism. While keenly interested in the Boy Scout Movement and a firm believer in it as a means of developing the boy's character and giving him healthy out-door fun, he laments the fact that the Boy Scout Movement is not military. In one public speech, he complained of the lack of military spirit in this country and said that the United States is not ready for war. He cited various peace movements as tending to prevent the development of the military spirit and referred especially to the peace conference of Andrew Carnegie and to the hostility to things military shown by the Boy Scouts of America. General Verbeck has been connected with the Boy Scout Movement since its inception in this country and is President of the Manlius Boys' Military School, so that what he says about the Boy Scout Movement may be regarded as authoritative. Another proof of the peace aims of the Boy Scouts' Organization is shown by the endorsement given it by the "Friends' Educational Conference" in Philadelphia. Before this decision was reached a thorough study of the movement was made by various representatives of the society and they reported heartily in favor of it as teaching the cardinal virtues through play and leading boys to understand higher ideals. That many Socialists misunderstand the Boy Scout Movement is indicated by a meeting held recently in Troy, New York. C. M. Connolly, Scout Commissioner, met in public meeting a group of Socialists and after explaining the aims of the Boy Scout Movement, he found no one who was not satisfied with its aims.—James E. West, Executive Secretary, Boy Scouts of America.

TO SUPREME COURT.

Law to Require Newspapers to Pay Additional Postage For Sample Copies Above a Certain Number Will Be Tested.

Washington, March 23.—The right of the Postoffice Department, under the existing laws to require real newspapers as distinguished from fake publications to pay additional postage for sample copies, exceeding 10 per cent of the copies of regular subscribers, is to be tested out in the Supreme Court of the United States.

The government today docketed in that court a case involving substantially that point. It was an appeal from the decision of Judge Newman of the United States district court for northern Georgia, dismissing an indictment of alleged conspiracy on the part of The Atlanta Journal Company, publisher of The Atlanta Semi-Weekly Journal and others, to defraud the government.

The judge held that no criminal offense had been stated against the defendants.

"Hearts" was the game for the afternoon, the tables being marked with tiny cups. The score cards were white cups. Following the game dainty refreshments were served.

They reappeared in a moment laden with numerous packages which were placed at the feet of the bride-to-be, which upon being opened disclosed various articles brought by loving friends to shower upon Miss Long.

Sea Elephants Taken.

San Diego, March 23.—Six sea elephants, the only ones ever taken alive, were caught by the crew and the scientists aboard the government ship Albatross on the shores of Guadalupe Islands, 250 miles south of San Diego. They were brought into port here. Two others, each weighing more than two tons, the hides measuring nearly 20 feet in length, were killed. The bodies have been preserved and will be shipped for mounting to the Smithsonian Institution at Washington.

Chicago, March 23.—A relief expedition to aid the Mexican insurrecto cause accounted and munitioned for dark, bloody conflict, with full equipment of real revolvers and other things, came to grief today when the outgoing train stopped at the first flag station out of Chicago. The Lafayette, or Kosciuscos—whichever one wishes—were taken from the train by their parents and the insurrectos will have to get along as best they can, alone.

The patriots, who sought to cleave their way with gory steel through tyrant armies to the sunlit heights of liberty were Clark Hitchins, 13 years old and Frank Peters and Elmer Hayes, each 14 years old.

Each had his father's revolver and forty rounds of ball cartridges; campaign clothing, toilet articles, other "field equipment," a determination to do or die (that is, when they started), and a war fund. This last named consisted of 94 cents.

But the best laid schemes of mice men and liberty loving patriots "gang aft aglee" and "stand pat" parents not alive to the high sentiments that make martyrs for liberty, called in the aid of mere policemen and at Riverdale the rescuing army was taken from the train and sent back home—with the honors of war, retaining artillery, equipment, etc., but with the war fund depleted to the extent of three tickets to Chicago.

The South is Making Good

F. X. Quinn, treasurer of the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia was registered at the Guilford yesterday. During the past year the Fidelity has loaned a large amount of money in North Carolina, some $75,000 of which was loaned in Greensboro. Mr. Quinn is making a special tour of the Carolinas inspecting existing securities and looking into conditions here. Mr. Quinn is highly pleased with North Carolina and especially so with Greensboro. He will leave at noon, after visiting some of the big things Greensboro has to show.

The South, confident of its ability and resources, is willing to become a debtor, and has for years been searching for a reasonable creditor. Mr. Quinn's visit is but an earnest of what is yet to come. Money is heading this way and lots of it. The South is making good and the financial world is finding it out.

Is it the High Cost of Living or the Cost of High Living Which Keeps You Hard Up?

This is a question which is of vital importance to you—man or woman. A higher civilization has brought with it increased needs, but our increased earning power has put the things necessary to our comfort and well being within easy reach of us. Then why all of this talk about the high cost of living? Then why do men who earn three times as much as their fathers ever earned find it so hard to live within their means? High living—absurd and unnecessary expenditures. This is the answer and there is no denying the correctness of this conclusion.

The "Average Man's" Money and What He Does With It.

We are not interested in what the millionaire does with his money. If he wants to go to his place of business in an airship, although it would be more pleasant, healthier and safer to walk, we are willing for him to have his airship, but the "Average man," the man with an average income, has needs for his money, and we want to see him get his money's worth. But does he? Does he get full value for the money expended on himself and family? Let's consider for example the "Average Man"—the head of a family of six with an income—say $3,000 a year. What are his expenses?

His Shoe Bill for Himself and Family is $77.50

His shoes, three pairs, cost him $18.00, his wife buys three pairs at a cost of $12.00, his grown up daughter, who is not extravagant, buys four pairs of shoes and slippers for $20.00, while his son of fourteen makes out with three pairs, which cost father $10.50, a daughter of twelve is satisfied with three pairs of $3.00 shoes, and the baby of six kicks out four pairs, which adds $8.00 to the cost of living, making a grand total of $77.50 for shoes for this "Average Man's" family for one year.

Did He Get His Money's Worth? If Not, Why Not?

First of all, he probably bought on credit, and had to pay for the shoes bought by the fellow who has an income of $2,000 a year and spends $3,000. He paid more than was necessary, because he has the "high living fever," and thinks that a $6.00 shoe is better than a $4.00 shoe because it costs more—it costs him more. It is not the high cost of living, but the cost of high living which keeps his nose to the grindstone. The foolish and unnecessary expenditure of money has caused all the trouble.

We Will Underwrite the "Average Man's" Shoe Bill at a Saving of 50 Per Cent

How can we do it? Because we buy and sell for cash, because we buy direct from the largest manufacturers in the South a line of shoes which actually represents more value and wear longer than other shoes. We will sell Mr. "Average Man" a pair of shoes for himself, the "Terry Special," for $4.00 and guarantee that it is the equal of any $6.00 shoe he has ever bought in style, comfort, workmanship and service. This is a broad statement, is it?—Well you can get this guarantee in black and white if you want it.

The "Average Man's" Wife Should Know Better

Why should the "Average Man's" wife pay $4.00 for her shoes and let her daughter pay $5.00, her son $3.50, the younger girl $3.00, and then spend $8.00 for shoes for the baby, when we can sell her for herself and daughter shoes at $3.00 and $3.50 per pair, guaranteed to be the equal in style, snap, workmanship and wear to the shoes she has been buying at $4.00 and $5.00 a pair elsewhere. We have a line of boys' shoes made by the Goodyear Welt process of the best materials which we sell for $2.50 a pair. Why should she pay $3.50? Why should the little girl be called on to pay $3.00 a pair and the baby $2.00 a pair when we sell misses' shoes with the style, comfort and wear in them for $2.00, and children's shoes at from $1.00 to $1.50 a pair.

Mrs. "Average Woman" This is Your Chance to Help Your Husband

Do you want to spend all of his income on your living? Do you want to have him mortgage your home to keep up appearances? Do you want him to fail in business because of your reckless expenditures? Or do you want to help him by buying where you can get the most for his money?

Ladies Are Better Shoppers Than Men Because They Are Better Judges of Values

Every sensible woman likes to get her money's worth, and as the ladies do more shopping than men, they are better posted, and it is for this reason that our prices and the unusual values which we are giving appeal especially to ladies. There are a few ladies who buy the most expensive articles in all lines, because they think price indicates quality, but the "AVERAGE WOMAN," the woman of intelligence knows values, and will buy a meritorious article at a bargain price quicker than she will buy it at a higher price, and it is for this reason that we want the ladies of this city to call and see us and examine our shoes and prices.

We want the "Average Man's" money and the "Average Woman's" money, and we will give them more for their money than they can get elsewhere, and we hope that you are all of the "show me" kind, and will come in and give us a chance to prove that we can save the "Average Man" and his family $25.00 on a year's supply of shoes—nearly 50 per cent.

You cannot afford to grow old. In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible, the youthful appearance.

It is impossible to do this without retaining a luxuriant growth of hair. The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective as it is delightful to use. Herpicide makes an elegant hair dressing as well as Dandruff cure.

OAK RIDGE AND WHITSETT PLAY SATURDAY.

Oak Ridge, March 23.—Oak Ridge Institute will play Whitsett Institute a game of baseball at Oak Ridge Saturday. A fine game is expected. Whitsett Institute is said to have strengthened up very much recently, and Oak Ridge has an unusually strong team. Lewellyn or Davis will be in the box for Oak Ridge, while Earle Holt will do the catching. Abernathy will play first, Clapp second, Mayberry or Howell on short, and Brittain at third. For the outfield, Graham or Thompson in right, Lutterloh or Clayton in center, and Dunning in left.

This will be the first meeting of these two teams within the last three years, as Whitsett Institute has not recently put out a team, till this year.

Oak Ridge lost to the University 4 to 1 last Friday and won from Bingham on Saturday by 9 to 5.

IRISH FOOT BALL TEAM DEFEATS SCOTLAND'S BEST

New York, March 23.—Irishmen here have just learned of the victory of the Emerald Isle in the annual rugby match between Scotland and Ireland, which took place at Iverleith a few days ago. On account of the match being on their own grounds, it was thought by many that the Scotchmen would come out victorious, but the Irish team won by a score of 16 to 10.

According to the advices received here, the men from the land of cakes were guilty of a lot of blunders which the Irishmen made good use of. The Irishmen led from the start, and at the intermission the tally in their favor was 8 to 3. The Scotchmen had several chances to even matters up, but were wanting at the critical moment.

Nature's Gift from the Sunny South

Cottolene

Better Patronize your Grocer than your Doctor

Nine-tenths of all human ills start from stomach trouble. Lard-cooked food, greasy and indigestible, is the cause of most stomach troubles. The remedy is in the hands of your cook—not your doctor.

Cottolene is a vegetable-oil cooking fat that is far superior to lard, butter or any other fat for frying and shortening.

Cottolene is pure in its source; it comes from the cotton fields of the Sunny South, and is made from the choicest of pure, refined cotton oil.

Cottolene is manufactured in a cleanly manner, amid the most favorable sanitary surroundings.

Cottolene is packed in air-tight, friction-top pails to insure its freshness and prevent it from absorbing dust and odors of the grocery. We authorize your grocer to refund your money if Cottolene is found to be other than fresh and satisfactory.

Cottolene makes healthful food, and food which any stomach can digest. It is worth more per pail than lard or any imitation, because—being richer—it will go one-third farther and is therefore most economical.

Hughie's advent as a total abstainer will create no especial consternation in the haunts of the demon rum. There have never been any wet goods emporiums that relied on the Jennings trade for their support. In fact, Hugh has always been a temperate man who drank only for sociability's sake—in self-defense, as it were—and a very limited quantity.

Practical reasons and the fact that Hughie was recently married are to blame for his new determination which came to light in an entirely accidental way. Said Hughie:

"I've decided on the step because I believe I owe it to my wife and to myself. I've got a first-class excuse and I mean to make the most of it. If a man drinks at all, he is bound to spend money and time in a way that is really nothing but a waste. I never did drink much. Now I don't drink anything. I made the decision while in California on my wedding trip, and I've never regretted my determination."

Sometimes a man with a bad reputation is envied by other men because of the way he got it.

Miss Dinningham—Mamma, do you think papa knows Harold is going to call for me in this aeroplane?

Mamma—Oh, I think so, dear. He's been hanging around the skylight with a club all afternoon.—Chicago News.

"You enjoy hearing people tell the railways what to do?"

"Yes," replied the rural editor. "It divides things up. Formerly they devoted their entire time to telling newspapers how they ought to be run."—Washington Star.

New Customs Rule Will Meet Favor of the Tourists

Washington, March 23.—Secretary
MacVeagh has approved a new customs ruling which the treasury department expects will do much to reduce the troubles of returning tourists from Europe and minimize attempts to smuggle personal belongings into the port of New York.

Under the law each American returning from abroad is entitled to bring in free $100 worth of personal belongings.
The customs rulings hitherto have been susceptible of elastic interpretation and many troublesome incidents have arisen.
The new ruling makes specific announcement of what articles a returning American may bring in free to the value of $100 as follows:

Clothing, toilet articles, jewelry, personal ornaments, cameras, fishing tackle, golf sticks, guns, musical instruments, steamer rugs, toys, shawls, valises and trunks.

These things will be considered dutible: Household goods, books, pictures, tableware, table and bed linen and similar articles unless used by the owner a year abroad. Goods in the piece will have to pay duty as will presents for other persons or articles of any nature for sale.
